

Joint Africa-EU Strategy Tuning Seminars
Brussels, November 2012

Tuning Approach for Harmonisation of Higher Education in Africa

Beatrice Khamati Njenga
Head, Education Division
Department of Human Resources, Science and Technology
African Union Commission

Guiding Framework

- 1. Vision of the African Union:
Integrated, peaceful, prosperous Africa driven by its own citizens....
- 2. Plan of Action for the Second Decade of Education for Africa: 7 areas of focus including higher education
- 3. Continental Frameworks for Science, Technology and Innovation; and Youth Empowerment

Revitalising Higher Education

Quality, access and African values

Intra-African collaboration for vibrant, influential African higher education space

Relevance and responsiveness to industry and social sector

Production and retention of quality intellectual capital

Differentiation and specialisation at continental level

Enhanced attractiveness of African higher education

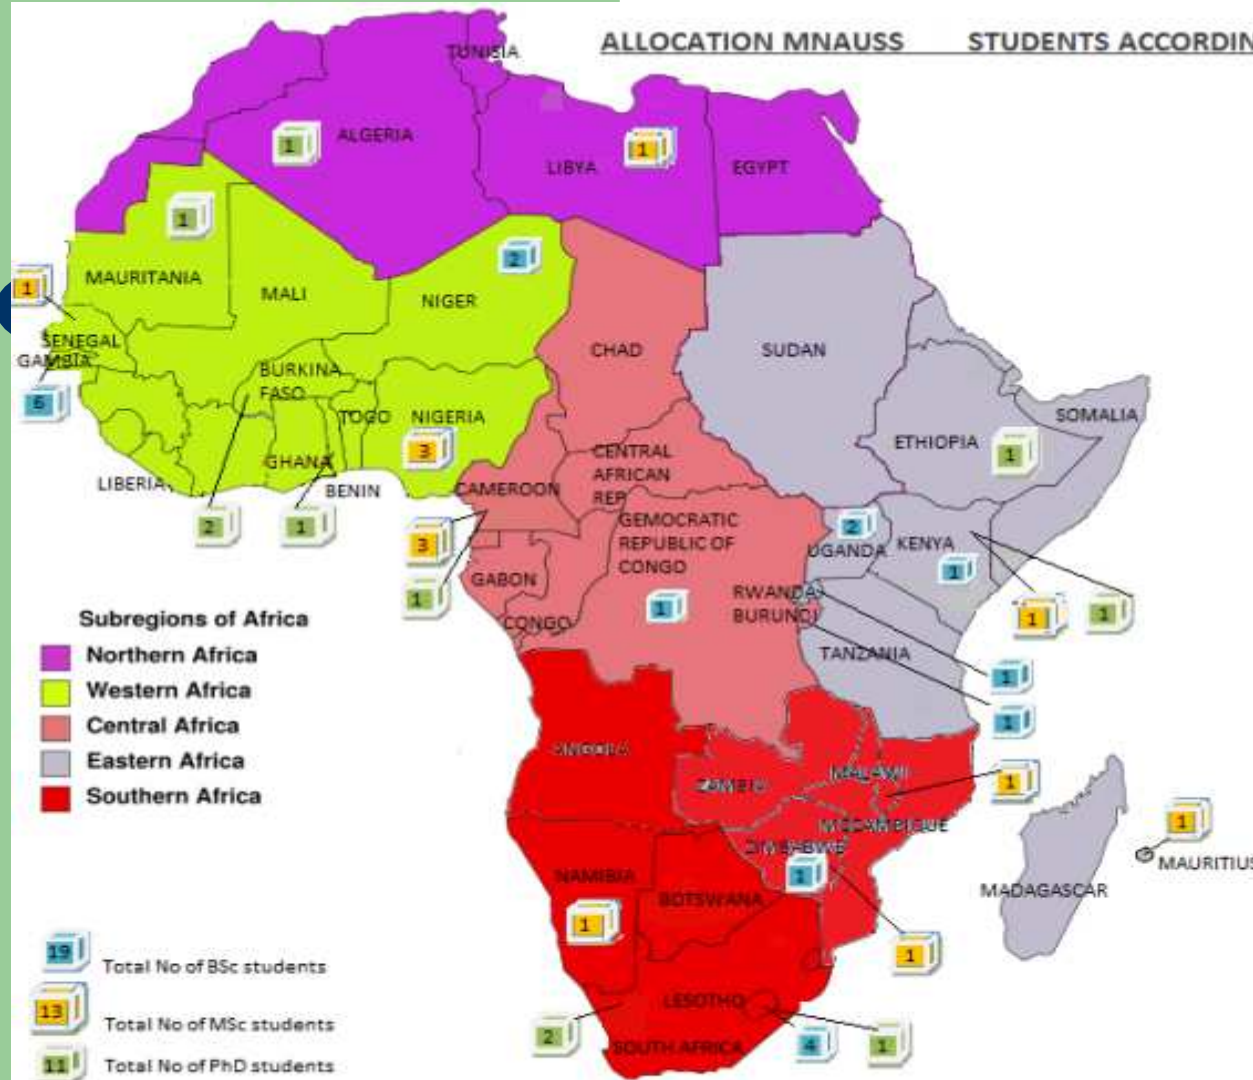

Need for Harmonisation

1. AU Vision of integration
2. Shared values, shared Quality
3. Mobility of intellectual capital
4. African scholarship
5. Education management information systems
6. Pan African University (PAU)

ALLOCATION MNAUSS STUDENTS ACCORDING TO AFRICAN RIGI

55 countries;
over 1,000
Universities

Pan African University - 1
University in up to 55 institutions

Pan African University

Regional Hubs of the PAU

1. Basic Sciences, Technology and Innovation at Jomo Kenyatta University of Agricultural Technology in Eastern Africa
2. Life and Sciences, at University of Ibadan in Western Africa
3. Governance, Humanities and Social Sciences at University of Yaoundé II in Central Africa
4. Water and Energy Sciences including Climate Change at Tlemcen University in Northern Africa
5. Space Sciences in Southern Africa

Contribution of Tuning

- 1. Producing Quality, responsive harmonised education programmes
- 2. Encouraging vision-led curriculum development through focus on outcome and competence
- 3. Providing opportunity for stakeholder participation- including industry
- 4. Promoting common understanding and shared values
- 5. Establishing frameworks for reflective review and quality improvement

Contribution of Tuning

A key to re-establishing education as a powerful tool for attainment of articulated collective vision of integration, peace, prosperity and peerage in the global community